PSALM 139:1-18

HONORING MOTHERS

ANGELIC VOICES OF SHILOH CHILDREN'S CHOIR

MY BEAUTIFUL MOMMY

Thank You, God, for the gift that You gave me--Thank You for my Mom
For her smile; No one is more gentle--She is the only one

My beautiful Mommy; Inside and out
Just want to say that I love you
You are my best friend--Now and forever
I am so thankful, Mom, for you--Thank You, Mom

For all that you gave me; For long and sleepless nights
I know, I'm blessed Mom, by Your prayers
Thanks for your kind heart

My beautiful Mommy; Inside and out
Just want to say that I love you
You are my best friend--Now and forever
I am so thankful, Mom, for you--Thank You, Mom

Since I opened my eyes, I've remembered your smile
I've remembered your touch--I love You so much
My beautiful Mommy; Inside and out
Just want to say that I love you
You are my best friend--Now and forever
I am so thankful, Mom, for you--Thank You, Mom

MORE THAN ENOUGH

Maybe I'll never know the love it takes
To make me a happy home that's warm and safe
And maybe I'll never see how you pray for my every need
And wonder what more you could do for me
Maybe you wonder if you're teaching me
Every good thing that I can someday be
But all that I know of faith
And of kindness and love and strength
I've by just watching you every day
Someday I'll have a home, a family
And I'll love them just as much as you love me
Then maybe you'll finally see
You have given enough for me
A gift that will last through eternity

SONG OF PREPARATION

ROBERT HEARTWELL

GOD'S AMAZING GRACE

I was young but I recall singing songs was mother's joy
As the shadows gathered at the close of day
And I'd sit up on her knee in those days that used to be
As she sang of God's Amazing Grace

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound; That saved a wretch, like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found; Was blind but now I see.

Mother was so good and kind, Oft she told me I would find
Not another who would share my griefs and woes
So I took her at her word, And sought the blessed Lord
And today my mother's God is mine

'Twas grace that taught, my heart to fear; And grace, my fears relieved
How precious did, that grace appear; The hour I first believed

At the closing of life's day--Christ will be my hope and stay
I shall meet my blessed mother face to face
And I'll tell her over there in that land so bright and fair
I am glad I trusted God's amazing grace

Thru many dangers toils and snares I have already come
Twas grace that brought me safe thus far and grace will lead me home

WITH LOVING MEMORIES

Mrs. Palestine Shelton Webb

October 30, 1930 — January 12, 1993

When I think about my mom, my mind drift to many occasions that she made special for her children. Not only did she have special occasion for her children, she also loved the children in the neighborhood and her love was given freely and each child shared in every occasion as well.

I remember playing outside and mom called us in for lunch, not only us but the other kids we was playing with. Keep in mind my mom had seventeen children so at any given time there was always at least thirteen of us plus the neighborhood children. My mom would call us in to wash our hands say a prayer and fed who ever was there.

I remember Holidays which were very special because special of my mom. She made sure that the family was together and she would start preparing food several days leading up to the holiday, not just our home but also prepared dinner for other families to pick up for their home and their children. So, Thanksgiving and Christmas would be a constant line of people dropping in and picking up their dinners.

I remember school days, we ate breakfast walk home for lunch and of course we brought extra children with us. My mom would make sure we had new clothes and shoes for school and holidays.

My mom didn't take us to the doctor during cold and flu season, ask me why? Remember you ask, she had a special medicine called cod liver oil, guess what it worked with her others remedies.

My mom was a very special lady and on this day I stand to salute and thank her for every fond memory she left me to cherish. Mom you are truly missed but never will be forgotten.

WITH LOVING MEMORIES

Mrs. Leola Jewel O'Neal Moody

All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute all my success in life to the moral, intellectual and physical education I received from her.

All that I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my angel Mother.

The memory of my mother and her teachings were, after all, the only capital I had to start life with, and on that capital, I have made my way.

My mother feared the Lord:

She had an excellent, noble character.

She had a keen foresight.

She had a strong testimony.

She had a strong faith in the Lord.

She was diligent and hard-working.

She was compassionate and caring.

She was loyal and trustworthy.

She was confident and bold.

She made herself attractive.

Reverend Patricia A. Ray, Chaplain

HONORING WITH LOVE

Mrs. Amelia Odell Elmore

My Mom taught me:

You can sit in the dark waiting for a man to come change your lightbulb if you want, you'll find yourself sitting in the dark. I appreciate her strength.

OUR ULTIMATE GOAL: BRING ALL CLASSES BACK “IN-PERSON”

May 02 is the beginning of bringing in-person Sunday School back for all of our classes—adults, youth and children. We plan to bring all classes back as more and more people are fully vaccinated and as we learn more and more of how to do “safe Sunday School”. We are beginning with two adult classes and as these classes grow in attendance and as restrictions ease, we will open other classes.

Currently we need everyone to register and let us know they will be attending. We follow all COVID safety protocol before, during and after Sunday School. We love Sunday School and we are looking forward to the time when we will all be together again!

FIRST IMPRESSION MINISTRY

Ushers

A CALL TO SERVE

The First Impressions Ministry is working to build and strengthen our Usher Ministry Teams. The goal is to have five teams of 6-8 ushers on Sundays. We are currently recruiting members who want to use their gifts of hospitality and service to serve on the usher teams. We currently have the following teams:

- | | |
|--|-------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> First Sunday | Adult Ushers Team |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Second Sunday | Adult Ushers Team |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Third Sunday | Men Ushers Team |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Fourth Sunday | Youth Ushers Team |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Fifth Sunday | Women Ushers Team |

The teams are wonderful small groups where you can make friends, grow spiritually together, pray for one another and of course, serve together.

You will experience great joy in greeting and serving our first time friends and our members on Sundays.

Each team serve one Sunday each month. You can serve more than one Sunday, if you choose to do so.

If you have never served as an usher, you will be trained and mentored before you serve on the floor. If you are a returning usher, you will receive refresher training.

The usher teams dress is both formal and casual, depending on the Sunday you serve.

Youth ushers are 6th—12th grades.
